Hi, Tom.

Sorry for the late notice but we have some additions to the Red & Bonita equipment list based on changes in the system setup that we heard about this morning. See the attached equipment list.

The radios and air monitor on Eric Sandusky's list are for work this week, but since they came with the equipment you sent me on August 22 I still have them and you won't need to issue more.

Elliott can pick up the things on the attached list this afternoon when he comes to get the vehicle, or if it's easier for you Eric can pick them up Monday morning.

Let me know if you have questions.

Jan
